

Camino and Rio Tinto Both Acquire New Claims at Auction near the Los Chapitos Copper Project in Peru

Vancouver, May 17, 2024 – Camino Corp. (TSXV: COR) (OTC: CAMZF) (WKN: A116E1) (“Camino” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has increased its claims at its Los Chapitos copper property (“Los Chapitos” or the “Project”) by an additional 1,700 hectares. In a land auction, Camino successfully competed against other bidders that included Rio Tinto, to gain titles to new exploration claims immediately adjacent to the Company’s Los Chapitos copper claims. The claims increase brings the Los Chapitos areas to a total of 22,571 hectares. This is the second increase in claims by Camino in the last year (see news release dated November 8, 2023). Rio Tinto also had the winning bid for part of the auction and increased their claim position next to Camino.

The first new claim block 59 (Figure 1), is located to the northwest, connecting Camino’s claims and Rio Tinto’s claims, and follows the extension of a major fault structure called La Estancia (see news release dated October 24, 2023). The La Estancia fault has been mapped on Camino’s existing Los Chapitos claim to extend over 12 kilometers in a northwest direction.

The second new claim block 54 (Figure 1) extends Camino’s claims immediately to the north, adjacent to the existing Los Chapitos claims near the Diana prospect. The claim block is located between two major regional faults, the Rumi Puka fault that extends over 10 kilometers over Los Chapitos claims in the North-South direction, and the Pochco fault that extends over 8.5 kilometers in the East-West direction.
